ALTERNATIVE SPARTAN BREAKS THROWS FRIENDS, FAMILY & ALUMNI BRUNCH

Lansing, Mich. — Michigan State University student organization Alternative Spartan Breaks (ASB) is hosting a Friends, Family & Alumni Brunch on Sunday, October 16 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the View at Cooley Law School Stadium. This event is a celebration of the past 25 years of ASB and an opportunity to share its mission and vision with friends, family and alumni.

Representative Sam Singh will be the keynote speaker, and will present at 12:15 p.m. Representative Singh is a Michigan State University and Alternative Spartan Breaks alumnus, and served as the city of East Lansing's mayor from 2006 to 2007. He will speak on his previous experience as an ASB participant, and the importance of service across the country and around the world.

“We really want to show everyone what we’ve been up to, and what ASB is all about” Tiffany Khoury, Outreach Coordinator of Alternative Spartan Breaks says. “This is an opportunity to not only reflect on the amazing things we’ve done in the past 25 years, but also look forward to our new initiatives and trips.”

ASB alumnus and director of the Michigan State University Residential College in the Arts and Humanities Program on Sustainability in Costa Rica, Vincent Delgado, will also present, and lead the reflection portion of the program.

There will be door prizes and opportunities to bid on items through a silent auction from 11 a.m. through 1 p.m. and a cash bar will be available to those over 21.

For more information or to RSVP for the event, visit the Alternative Spartan Breaks website at <http://www.asb.msu.edu/alumni-brunch>.
